“Best Chile on Any Planet”

PARADE RULES – PLEASE READ CAREFULLY

The Hatch Chile Festival Parade will form at the Hatch High School Parking lot on North Franklin on Saturday, September 4, 2010. Line up will begin at 9:00 a.m. The Parade will begin promptly at 10:00 a.m. Contact the Parade Chairman, Rob Spence, when you arrive for placement. It is the responsibility of the driver of the float or leader of the group to see that their entry is in place. Drivers and/or owners of the vehicles, trailers or other parade entries are solely responsible for the property and/or any damage they may cause. Parade vehicles must have their own liability insurance. The Hatch Valley Chamber of Commerce Chile Festival Committee provides NO insurance coverage for any Parade entry. NO ITEMS ARE TO BE THROWN FROM THE ENTRY, but should be handed out by persons walking along side. Drivers of ATV's, 4-wheelers and motorcycles MUST BE AT LEAST 15 YEARS OF AGE. ID's will be checked. A Parade entry form should be on file by the entry deadline date. Vehicles must be decorated for the Parade. We thank you for your support and participation in the 2010 Hatch Chile Festival Parade.

Thank you,
